DOESN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH FLOOD MONEY

Gov. Ralston Has on Deposit $59,194.56, Sum Left Over From 1913-14, Sum Left Over From Relief Fund.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 12.—Gov. Samuel M. Ralston has $59,194.56 on deposit to his credit in the local bank and is worried about what he can do with the money. He can't spend it and as it would be a hopeless task to try to give it back to the thousands of persons who contributed the amount, he said Friday he probably would ask the next session of the legislature to aid him in finding a way to dispose of the money.

The thousands of dollars are part of the fund contributed for the relief of flood sufferers in Indiana during the spring months of this year. The fund originally amounted to $141,088 and $59,194 was not used.

The fund draws four per cent interest and is increasing at the rate of about $2,200 a year.

Gov. Ralston said that the state had no claim upon the money and that he would call in some bankers and discuss with them the question of its disposal. If no action is decided upon the governor will ask the 1915 legislature to take charge of the money.
